	Manske, Frank con't 1							Denver, Colorado--Just as he was about to receive $200,000, Frank Manske, aged 54, employed as a dishwasher at St. Anthony's hospital dropped dead. Joy at the news of his receiving the legacy is believed to have caused his death. Manske came to Denver about a year ago. He was suffering from stomach trouble and went to the hospital. There he told the authorities that he was without funds, but was willing to work for his treatment. He was given position of dishwasher.
	Manske, Frank con't 2							A few days ago there appeared in The News an advertisement inserted by a Chicago firm of lawyers seeking Frank Manske, heir to a large estate. He read the ad and communicated with the attorneys. Only yesterday morning, Manske received a reply. It stated his brother, Carl Manske, died recently leaving an estate of $1,000,000.00. There are five heirs. Frank Manske was to receive $200,000.00 and as the estate in readily converted securities, he would have received the funds possibly in a short time. Overjoyed by the news, Manske told all his friends at the hospital of his luck. He told of what he intended to do with the money. In the midst of his tale, he dropped to the floor. Physicians were summoned, but he was found to be dead. The unusual excitement, the physicians say, caused his collapse. Find A grave Contributor: Gypsy Girl (47851655) 7 Sep 2019

"The tragic story came to light yesterday when the body of a man killed Tuesday by an auto on the west approach of the Colfax ave. viaduct was identified in the county morgue as that of Marsin." "Before I die, all I want is to go back where I grew up – a little town just out of Montreal in Canada," Marsin had confided to John Schwab, landlord of the house in which he lived at 1569 Bryant st." "Marsin had lived a long life – he was past 70. Much of it had been spent as a section hand on Western railroads." "From time to time he had laid away a little money against the time when he would go "back home." These savings, tucked into an old tobacco sack and tied inside his vest totaled $65.'	none	1,6,13		31 Oct 1933
20 Nov 1933	Marsin, John con't 1							"Tuesday was the big day, Marsin was ready to go "back home."" "He put on his wardrobe – two pairs of trousers and two heavy sweaters – and, just as the sun was setting, locked the door of his tiny home and started for the bus terminal." "Half an hour later he was struck by a car and killed." "For two days his body lay in the county morgue, unclaimed and unidentified." "Deputy Coroner George Bostwick looked thru the man's effects yesterday. A key – just an ordinary house key – seemed the best clue. Bostwick remarked that it was similar to many he had seen in the pockets of men from Peter Town, a district where many transient men gather in tiny shacks." "So Bostwick went to Peter Town. Somebody there told him Marsin had left Tuesday and showed him the house." "The key opened the lock. Schwab confirmed the identification a few minutes later in county morgue." "It was too late for Marsin to go "back home."" (13).

Per e-mail datd 02 Nov 2011 from great granddaughter Yukimi Marshall: Our great grandfather, Jose Emiterio Celedonio Martin (Martinez) was born on March 4, 1864 in Taos, New Mexico to Juan Bautista Martin (Martinez) and Maria Eluteria Rael. From what we have found so far he had a total of nine siblings (based on Federal Censuses). There were 5 boys and 2 girls. Two are still unknown. We do know that he worked at the CF&I Steel Mill in Pueblo, CO.	none	1,6,13	04 Mar 1864	1933	Maria Eluteria Rael	Juan Bautista Martin (Martinez)
15 Mar 1933	Martinez, Jose Emiterio Celedonio con't 1							He married my great grandmother Maria Crestina Vigil from Taos, Rio Colorado, New Mexico. Emiterio and Crestina divorced in 1917. They had two sons and one daughter, Juan Eccolastico Martinez (our grandfather), Fredolin Martinez and Christina Martinez. After the divorce the family seemed to have split up. We can only assume some of it was because of the great depression. My grandfather traveled and worked the farms through Montana and Canada at the time of Emiterio's death. We still are not able to determine what happened to his brother Fred during this time. That is why Emiterio died alone. The family heard he was buried in a Pauper's field in Denver, but we did not know where.
15 Mar 1933	Martinez, Jose Emiterio Celedonio con't 2							His family line is carried on by 7 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 37 great-great grandchildren and 2 great-great-great grand-daughters. With your information, his two great granddaughters and his oldest great-great-grandson set out on a trek to find the exact location he was buried. We are extremely confident that we have found him! 18 Mar 1933, p. 13, Rocky Mountain News, Burial Permit: "Martinez, Emitanio, 69, of the Navajo Hotel." (13).

06 Sep 1918	McClure, Cecil W. Con't 1							24 Aug 1918, Rocky Mountain News, p3, News Article -- "Murder Suspect Dies Of Slow Poison Taken After Ramey Killing" "McClure Expires at Hospital Before He Rallies Sufficiently to Make Statement; Was Thought to Be "Stalling." "Cecil W. McClure, alias McFarland, who the police say murdered Mrs. Bessie Ramey by cutting her throat in his room at the Acacia rooming house, 1641 Tremont street, early Monday morning, died at the County hospital shortly after 5 o'clock last night of a slow poison. It is the belief of the police and Coroner W.P. Horan that McClure took the poison sometime Monday and secluded himself in some desolate spot near University Park to await death.' "It is the opinion of physicians who performed the autopsy last night that McClure took more than ten grains of bichloride of mercury, which is a slow poison. The physicians are making an analysis of his stomach and kidneys, but, at last reports, were unable to determine the exact nature of the poison.'
06 Sep 1918	McClure, Cecil W. Con't 2							"When McClure was found in a vacant lot near University Park early Wednesday night he was believed to be suffering from exposure. His clothing was wet and he told police that he had been in an irrigation ditch.' "He revived when he was treated at the city jail, and his condition was not considered serious. The police are confident now that he took poison and that he became delirious and wondered out of his hiding place from the extreme suffering he was experiencing.' "When McClure was taken to the County hospital Thursday night. Police Surgeon Campbell stated that the man had a slight fever, but he probably would be able to give a statement of the murder by Saturday. Chief Hamilton Armstrong ordered his removal to the hospital.' "Physicians at the institution, after a thoro (sic) examination yesterday afternoon, failed to find anything wrong with McClure and reported to Superintendent George Collins that

06 Sep 1918	McClure, Cecil W. Con't 3							they thought the prisoner was "stalling." At 5 o'clock McClure went into a convulsion and died.' "Coroner Horan ordered an autopsy held last night to determine the cause of his death. The doctors found that his stomach and kidneys was highly inflamed from some slow poison. All indications pointed to bichloride of mercury, but it will not be definitely known until the physicians make a report of the analysis this morning." "The fact that McClure took poison which ended his life, establishes the fact, the police say, that he murdered Mrs. Ramey. When he was taken to the city jail and his clothing searched there was no trace of poison in his pockets.' "Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, who conducts the rooming house where the woman was found slain, made the statement that McClure would never be arrested, and it is the belief of the police that she knew he had taken poison when he left the place after Mrs. Ramey was killed.' "The funeral of

In addition to the ambiguity already described in the bio, I found an immigration record from 1900 listing his age as 30 in 1900 suggesting birth ~1870. So he could have been born any time between 1867-1872. 香川県小豆郡 ??? 16 Jan 1919	Mills, J.M.	40 yrs	W	M	12	19	77	Found elean death notices, via the Rocky Mountain News, under the name of J.M. Mills and James Madison Mills who died in mid November 1918. James Madison Milles was of Kansas City, Mo; his last residence was Eighteenth street; his remains were at Yeager mortuary. The notices give no age or interment location. The notices continue through 01 Dec 1918 with a James mills remains still at the Yeager mortuary and announcement of 'funneral notice later'. I believe these James and James Madisons are our J.M. Mills, but need more to go on. I did find a J.M. Mills in Obit index for 12 Jan 1919 -- I'll need to check that one.	Yeager	1,6		1918

08 Nov 1905	Norden, Johan August Niklasson con't	37 yrs	W	NL	12	1	84	Per Lisa Aronsson, Find A Grave contributor NannaLisa #51007949: I've concluded that my husbands great grandfather died in Denver 1905. He hadn't been in America long when he died, of what we don't know. On the gravestone it says John Nordin but his birth name was Johan August Niklasson Nordén. He was born 14 Aug 1868 in Vapnö, Halmstad (Sweden). He has a lot of descendants in the US. Two of his children emigrated to the US a couple of years after his death. I'm not sure the descendants know about Johan August though. We haven't gotten in touch with them yet. Sincerely Lisa Aronsson Halmstad, Sweden

12 Jun 1907	Park, Chung H.	37 yrs	Korean	M	12	3	83	Died in Den Co., CO (3). Epitaph of Hee Byung Park: Korean Patriot In honor of the 100th anniversary of the death of Park Hee Byung we, the Korean Society of the Denver area, now recognize him as the founding father of Korean immigrants in Colorado. During the height of the Japanese occupation of Korea, Mr. Park was a true patriot and a leader in the Korean Independence Movement. Mr. Park studied modern ideology in both Japan and the United States of America. As a government official, he served as a translator at the Unsan Mine in Korea. He eventually sent many Koreans to work as laborers in the Denver area. Mr. Park arrived in Denver in 1906. He started the Korean Independence Movement organizing Koreans living in the United States to influence the U.S. government to recognize the Independence of Korea. (4). Color listed as: Y (6). 	Rey, Andres cont 1							Information and pictures provided 12 and 14 March 2021 by: Glenda Askins, granddaughter of Andres Rey - He died before I was born. Andres came to America when he was 33 year old from San Julian de Lamas Coruna, Spain. He was born approximately April 24, 1873. My mother, Hilda Rey-James, was his middle child. She was born April 30, 1914 and died Nov. 3,1997; she told me the story about his death. His oldest child was Esther Rey-Hall, born on Sept. 11,1912 and died in 1989, and his son, Samuel Andres Rey born Dec. 24, 1917 and died in 2001.
	Rey, Andres cont 2							Andres' wife or my grandmother, Maria Luisa Martinez-Rey was born June 11,1876-Dec.30,1958. She came to America from Santa Isabel de las Lajas, Las Villas, Cuba. They met in Tampa, Florida and lived in Ybor City where they had their family there. After 2 of their 3 children were born, Andres caught tuberculosis.
	Rey, Andres cont 3							My grandmother (his wife and 2 daughters -- and a son not yet born) were poor people and didn't go to Denver with him. He moved there because he caught tuberculosis and moved there for his health. He waited tables somewhere on Colfax in a small cafe in downtown until his death on July 18, 1917. He died a pauper. He was 44 years old. His son Samuel, would be born 5 months later.
	Rey, Andres cont 4							My grandmother and her now 3 young children then moved with their aunts, uncles and cousins to Dallas and Ft. Worth where she lived with one of her sisters. Both of them took in sewing to make a living and support her 3 children.
	Rey, Andres cont 5							Andres Rey's brothers were Ramon, Julian, and Angel. His sisters were Maria and Victoria. My mother told me that the family may have some connection with the family that owns the Cuesta-Rey Cigar Factory. I tried to find out more when visiting Ybor City and Tampa where the factory still exists, but have had no luck finding anything.

25 Feb 1933	Rice, Guy con't								Per County Coroner Records: "Guy Rice – He lived at 332 E. 18 th Ave. His trade was unknown. He was 37 (DOB: 2-11-33) (sic) years old and was involved in a shootout with police. He was either hit by one of their bullets and used his weapon to kill himself. He apparently started shooting at the police who then shot back... He was transported to Denver General Hospital and then pronounced. He had family who was well known to the law enforcement in Scotland County, Mo. The Coroner sent a letter to them to try to locate family. They gave the Coroner the name of some of them: Gus Rice of Memphis Mo., Grant Rice of Milton Iowa, G. Rice of Chicago Ill., and Steward Rice also of Memphis Mo. The family did not make arrangements so the Coroner did. The manner of death is listed as Suicide/Homicide? Ballistics was not as it is today. The death certificates now list undetermined but in those days did not. If he were shot by the police (even if he started the shooting it would be called a homicide, if he shot himself..." Per e-mail dtd 07 Dec 2009 to Diane Nygaard: Paul Max was born Max Paul Hermann Schubert. Paul is the grandfather of Otto Bang's wife. Information provided to Vickie Smejkal from Otto Bangs, grandson-in-law, 2 Nov 2010: Born Max Paul Hermann Schubert, 15 Oct 1885 in Neustrelitz Mecklenburg, Germany to Paul Hermann Schubert and Karoline Wrede. Around 1900, he moved from Germany to Canada, there he established a real estate office in the city of Regina Saskatchewan. In 1907 he married Lily Grueger, dau. of Andreas Grueger. By 1941, he moved to Edmonton Alberta, Canada, establishing the German Colonization/Land Office in Edmonton. His company aided German immigrant in applying for, and the establishing of, homesteads in Canada. Prior to the U.S. entering into WWI, Paul Schubert moved to the United States, first to San Francisco and then to Los Angeles. In 1940, Paul moved from California to Denver, Colorado. Shortly after Paul moved to Denver, he died during an operation for stomach ulcer. 27 Dec 1933	Taylor, Henry	45 yrs	W	M	12	34	136	Undertaker: Mortuary Bureau (6). 08 Dec 1933, Rocky Mountain News, p. 1, News Article: "Man Who Fled Lest He Kill Swindler Starves To Death in Rude Shelter on East Denver Dump" / "Message Scrawled on Cardboard Relates Tragedy of Poverty" / "BY JOHN C. POLLY" "Two weeks ago a penniless man fled to Denver from Purcell, Colo., for fear he would kill a man who, he believed had defrauded him." "Yesterday the body of Henry Taylor, 45, the man who fled rather than commit murder, was found in an all shelter of scrap tin and junk on a dump one block north of Brighton blvd. Death was caused by starvation and exposure. Taylor had eaten nothing for four and a half days." "The rats which he had fought off in his nightmares of suffering had mutilated his face beyond recognition after death."	none	1,6,13		1933
27 Dec 1933	Taylor, Henry cont 1							" "Strange law of the fittest that a man should sign his own death warrant so that he might not take the life of another man." "By the side of the crumpled body was a piece of torn cardboard, taken from the dump." "On it Taylor had written his dying statement." "Taylor's witnesses were rats and his deathbed was a corner of the tin-can shelter thru which the wind moaned and whistled its song of death." "The cardboard was covered on one side with a penciled statement, which indicated that Taylor had not yet become delirious when he wrote it." "Came to Denver a few days ago. Run out of money. Didn't have the heart to beg. Went 4½ days without food. So here I am. There is a whole lot more I would like to tell you. There is one man I would like to have killed, but that wouldn't of helped matters. He beat me out of $100 this fall at threshing time." "On the reversed side of the cardboard are jumbled statements that meant cold and starvation were sure of their victim."
27 Dec 1933	Taylor, Henry cont 2							"I have plenty of proof from neighbors that seen me farm the place. That ----- is the dirty skunk that beat me. Ask the neighbors." "Ask Freeman, president of the Briggsdale Bank, Briggsdale, Colo." "Ask Tom Smith, the man that baled the beans of mine." "Good-by, I have stayed four nights in this hold. It is hell." "Good-by, everybody. Henry Taylor, Purcell, Colo." "The body was discovered by S.C. Harshfield, 2015 Larimer st." "Harshfield was wandering around the dump looking for a pail when he saw a leg extending from the crude shelter. He called Deputy Coroner George H. Bostwick, who discovered the death statement." "We checked with the Briggsdale banker and found that Taylor's statements in the note were correct." Bostwick said." "Taylor and another man planted a bean crop and harvested it. The beans were baled by Smith. The other man is supposed to have cheated Taylor out of $100. The beans are unsold and in the possession of Smith."

27 Dec 1933	Taylor, Henry con't 3								"Taylor fled to Denver to keep from killing the other man, according to our information from Briggsdale." "Bostwick estimated Taylor had been dead about a week, which would indicate he arrived in Denver 10 day or two weeks ago. He was dressed in work clothes. The suffering man had attempted to make a pallet out of a small quantity of old straw.' "The cause of death was given as starvation and exposure. The body will be held here pending receipt of additional information from Purcell. It is not known whether Taylor had relatives there." 20 Dec 1933	Two Eagle, Robert 	4 mos	R	M	12	24	658	11 Dec 1933, p.1, Rocky Mountain News, News Article: "CHARGES MATE KILLED INFANT" / "Mrs. Blanche Burke Accuses Fortune Teller of Beating Baby" / "BY JOHN C. POLLY" ""He killed my baby and I could kill him."" "This was the charge last night of Mrs. Blanche Burke, 2553 Champa st., in her accusation against her husband, Joseph Burke, fortune teller who claims to be the son of a Hindu maharaja." "Burke is in county jail, servicing out a $200 fine imposed on charges of beating his baby stepson, Robert Two Eagle, four months old." "A hold order has been placed against Burke by order of Detective Capt. William J. Armstrong. The baby died yesterday at 8 a.m." "An autopsy will be held today under the direction of Deputy Coroner William M. O'Brien. Results of the autopsy will be made known at the coroner's inquest." "Fred Fanger of the state bureau of child and animal protection declared last night that he will ask for a murder information against Burke."	Hackethal, Theo.	1,6,13	1933	10 Dec 1933	Blanche
20 Dec 1933	Two Eagle, Robert con't 1 Robert Two Eagle's mother Blanche Burke 							"Mothers and fathers of Denver and Littleton had hardly recovered from the shock of the charges of Mrs. Mabel J. Smith that her husband, Donald Smith, had killed their three-year-old son, when the Burke case arose yesterday. Both men are in the same jail." "Burke, who went under the name of "Prince Sala," was fined $200 and cost Nov. 9 after his wife testified, that he had beaten the baby unmercifully a few days before. There were welts on the baby's face and body as a result of the beatings." "Burke claimed that he tried to relieve the child of suffering caused by gas on the occasion of which his wife charged he beat the baby." "Burke was arrested originally by Fanger after the child allegedly had been beaten in an apartment at 1215 Stout st., where the Burkes stayed for a few weeks after first coming to Denver. At the time the baby was so badly hurt that hospital treatment was necessary."
20 Dec 1933	Two Eagle, Robert con't 2							"The baby was taken by Fanger to the Colorado Children's Aid Society, 2951 Curtis st. During the last two weeks the baby appeared to be on the road to recovery." "After Burke was sent to jail the mother took the child to an apartment at 2553 Champa st. There the baby received the best of care. He was fed by the mother at 3 a.m. yesterday. A few hours later Mrs. Burke awakened to find the baby dead. Death was believed caused by a spinal injury." Wells, 19, of 2739 Lafayette street, Negro, after the death of her husband Harry, 35, a WPA worker." "Wells died as he was being carried from a police ambulance into the emergency room at the Denver General hospital. His skull was fractured. Police said the wife hit him on the head with a salad bowl." ""I was getting Harry's lunch ready at 7 a.m.," the woman told Acting Captain of Detectives O.A. (Nick) Carter. ""He was in bad humor -- said the lunch was no good, that I couldn't cook and that the stuff I gave him to eat wasn't fit for a dog. I got mad and said, 'all right, fix it yourself.' Instead he grabbed me by the throat. I grabbed a salad bowl that was on the table and threw it at him. It hit him on the head and he fell unconscious. Then I called the police." Certificate of Death (copy) provided by Janet McCoy, great granddaughter of George Wright.	none	1,6,13	12 Jun 1866	07 Nov 1931	Nancy Jane Barber	George Wiley Wright
	Wright, George Thomas cont 1							e-mail from Janet McCoy, great granddaughter, 10 April 2014. "He was born in Marietta, Cobb Co, Georgia to George Wiley Wright and Nancy Jane Barber." "He married Anna Hall (can't find the date or where); first 2 children, May and Elmer were born in Krebs, Pittsburgh, Okalahoma, and then the family moved to Durango, LaPlata Co, Colo. Where a son Walter, daughter Pearl and daughter Emma were born." "Anna died on 6 March 1898 of blood poisoning, leaving all the children. I have been unable to find Pearl, but have been told she died as a toddler. George eloped with Elizabeth Bassick Webb, and the sheriff of Durango went and brought them back, as Lizzie was 16 and George was 32. Lizzie B. took care of George's children as seen in the 1900 census of Telluride, San Miguel Co, CO." "George and Lizzie were divorced before 1920, as he married Elizabeth F. Allison on 26 Sep. 1907 in Golden, CO. Shows them in the 1910 census living in Spokane, WA. She died there (no proof of when)."
	Wright, George Thomas cont 2							"George then roomed with a Gertrude Eagan whom he married on 29 Mar 1921 in Arapahoe Co, CO. I don't know what happened to her, as George died in 1931 on 7 Nov." "My grandmother, his oldest daughter, was placed in an orphanage in Denver where she stayed until she was 17. When she got married, her sister Emma came to live with her. Elmer lived in Alamosa, CO, and had an arm cut off in a railroad mishap, but was married. Emma married Theophil A. Peterson and later divorced. Walter never married, but was in the Army." "George ran a traveling shooting gallery and took the kids with him, so it must have been not long after he and Lizzie B. divorced. He realized that was no life for children, so he farmed the boys out with people he knew, sent Emma to live with an aunt in Texas, and put May in the orphanage."
