

Prince Allen
Popularly known as "The Prophet"

Undertaker: Meyer-Feldman (6). 7 Apr 1934 Colorado Statesman, Obit: "THE IMMORTAL PASSES -- Prince Allen, popularly known as 'The Prophet,' leader of a religious sect with headquarters at 25th and Washington Streets, died Thursday, March 29th. He was buried next day before sundown, in true Jewish fashion -- face, downward, wrapped in a winding sheet, enclosed in a plain pine box, and covered with spices. The cars at the funeral were donated by Mr. Sam Feldman, well-known Jewish citizen, and the services were attended by his faithful followers only. "The Prophet" was over seventy years old, and though very eccentric, was well-liked by his many friends and acquaintances." (11).
