"The tragic story came to light yesterday when the body of a man killed Tuesday by an auto on the west approach of the Colfax ave. viaduct was identified in the county morgue as that of Marsin." "Before I die, all I want is to go back where I grew up - a little town just out of Montreal in Canada," Marsin had confided to John Schwab, landlord of the house in which he lived at 1569 Bryant st." "Marsin had lived a long life - he was past 70. Much of it had been spent as a section hand on Western railroads." "From time to time he had laid away a little money against the time when he would go "back home." These savings, tucked into an old tobacco sack and tied inside his vest totaled $65.'	none	1,6,13		31 Oct 1933

20 Nov 1933	Marsin, John con't 1								"Tuesday was the big day. Marsin was ready to go "back home." "He put on his wardrobe – two pairs of trousers and two heavy sweaters – and, just as the sun was setting, locked the door of his tiny home and started for the bus terminal.' "Half an hour later he was struck by a car and killed.' "For two days his body lay in the county morgue, unclaimed and unidentified." "Deputy Coroner George Bostwick looked thru the man's effects yesterday. A key – just an ordinary house key – seemed the best clue. Bostwick remarked that it was similar to many he had seen in the pockets of men from Peter own, a district where many transient men gather in tiny shacks.' "So Bostwick went to Peter Town. Somebody there told him Marsin had left Tuesday and showed him the house.' "The key opened the lock. Schwab confirmed the identification a few minutes later in county morgue.' "It was too late for Marsin to go "back home.'" (13).

15 Mar 1933	Martinez, Jose Emitterio Celedonio cont' 1							He married my great grandmother Maria Crestina Vigil from Taos, Rio Colorado, New Mexico. Emitterio and Crestina divorced in 1917. They had two sons and one daughter, Juan Eccolastico Martinez (our grandfather), Fredolin Martinez and Christina Martinez. After the divorce the family seemed to have split up. We can only assume some of it was because of the great depression. My grandfather traveled and worked the farms through Montana and Canada at the time of Emitterio's death. We still are not able to determine what happened to his brother Fred during this time. That is why Emitterio died alone. The family heard he was buried in a Pauper's field in Denver, but we did not know where.
15 Mar 1933	Martinez, Jose Emitterio Celedonio cont' 2							His family line is carried on by 7 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 37 great-great grandchildren and 2 great-great-great grand-daughters. With your information, his two great granddaughters and his oldest great-great-grandson set out on a trek to find the exact location he was buried. We are extremely confident that we have found him! 18 Mar 1933, p. 13, Rocky Mountain News, Burial Permit: "Martinez, Emitanio, 69, of the Navajo Hotel." (13).

"Cecil W. McClure, alias McFarland, who the police say murdered Mrs. Bessie Ramey by cutting her throat in his room at the Acacia rooming house, 1641 Tremont street, early Monday morning, died at the County hospital shortly after 5 o'clock last night of a slow poison. It is the belief of the police and Coroner W.P. Horan that McClure took the poison sometime Monday and secluded himself in some desolate spot near University Park to await death.' "It is the opinion of physicians who performed the autopsy last night that McClure took more than ten grains of bichloride of mercury, which is a slow poison. The physicians are making an analysis of his stomach and kidneys, but, at last reports, were unable to determine the exact nature of the poison.'
06 Sep 1918	McClure, Cecil W. Con't 2							"When McClure was found in a vacant lot near University Park early Wednesday night he was believed to be suffering from exposure. His clothing was wet and he told police that he had been in an irrigation ditch.' "He revived when he was treated at the city jail, and his condition was not considered serious. The police are confident now that he took poison and that he became delirious and wandered out of his hiding place from the extreme suffering he was experiencing.' "When McClure was taken to the County hospital Thursday night. Police Surgeon Campbell stated that the man had a slight fever, but he probably would be able to give a statement of the murder by Saturday. Chief Hamilton Armstrong ordered his removal to the hospital.' "Physicians at the institution, after a thoro (sic) examination yesterday afternoon, failed to find anything wrong with McClure and reported to Superintendent George Collins that

"Coroner Horan ordered an autopsy held last night to determine the cause of his death. The doctors found that his stomach and kidneys was highly inflamed from some slow poison. All indications pointed to bichloride of mercury, but it will not be definitely known until the physicians make a report of the analysis this morning.' "The fact that McClure took poison which ended his life, establishes the fact, the police say, that he murdered Mrs. Ramey. When he was taken to the city jail and his clothing searched there was no trace of poison in his pockets.' "Mrs. Elizabeth Fowler, who conducts the rooming house where the woman was found slain, made the statement that McClure would never be arrested, and it is the belief of the police that she knew he had taken poison when he left the place after Mrs. Ramey was killed.' James Madison Milles was of Kansas City, Mo; his last residence was Eighteenth street; his remains were at Yeager mortuary. The notices give no age or interment location. The notices continue through 01 Dec 1918 with a James mills remains still at the Yeager mortuary and announcement of 'funneral notice later'. I believe these James and James Madisons are our J.M. Mills, but need more to go on. I did find a J.M. Mills in Obit index for 12 Jan 1919 -- I'll need to check that one.	Yeager	1,6

25 Feb 1933	Rice, Guy con't							Per County Coroner Records: "Guy Rice – He lived at 332 E. 18 th Ave. His trade was unknown. He was 37 (DOB: 2-11-33) (sic) years old and was involved in a shootout with police. He was either hit by one of their bullets and used his weapon to kill himself. He apparently started shooting at the police who then shot back... He was transported to Denver General Hospital and then pronounced. He had family who was well known to the law enforcement in Scotland County, Mo. The Coroner sent a letter to them to try to locate family. They gave the Coroner the name of some of them: Gus Rice of Memphis Mo., Grant Rice of Milton Iowa, G. Rice of Chicago Ill., and Steward Rice also of Memphis Mo. The family did not make arrangements so the Coroner did. The manner of death is listed as Suicide/Homicide? Ballistics was not as it is today. The death certificates now list undetermined but in those days did not. If he were shot by the police (even if he started the shooting it would be called a homicide, if he shot himself..." Wells, 19, of 2739 Lafayette street, Negro, after the death of her husband Harry, 35, a WPA worker." "Wells died as he was being carried from a police ambulance into the emergency room at the Denver General hospital. His skull was fractured. Police said the wife hit him on the head with a salad bowl." "I was getting Harry's lunch ready at 7 a.m.," the woman told Acting Captain of Detectives O.A. (Nick) Carter. "He was in bad humor -- said the lunch was no good, that I couldn't cook and that the stuff I gave him to eat wasn't fit for a dog. I got mad and said, 'all right, fix it yourself.' Instead he grabbed me by the throat. I grabbed a salad bowl that was on the table and threw it at him. It hit him on the head and he fell unconscious. Then I called the police." Certificate of Death, Bureau of Vital Statistics, State of Colorado: George Wright, 63, widower, white, male, b. in Georgia, residence in the city of Denver for 12 yrs. (was resident of the Navajo Hotel at time of his death), died 7 Nov 1931 in Denver General Hospital, CoD: Gastric Ulcer with Pyloric Obstruction, Burial at Riverside 10 Dec 1931. Certificate of Death (copy) provided by Janet McCoy, great granddaughter of George Wright.	none	1,6,13	12 Jun 1866	07 Nov 1931	Nancy Jane Barber	George Wiley Wright

	Wright, George cont1								e-mail from Janet McCoy, great granddaughter, 10 April 2014. "He was born in Marietta, Cobb Co, Georgia to George Wiley Wright and Nancy Jane Barber." "He married Anna Hall (can't find the date or where); first 2 children, May and Elmer were born in Krebs, Pittsburgh, Okalahoma, and then the family moved to Durango, LaPlata Co, Colo. Where a son Walter, daughter Pearl and daughter Emma were born." "Anna died on 6 March 1898 of blood poisoning, leaving all the children. I have been unable to find Pearl, but have been told she died as a toddler. George eloped with Elizabeth Bassick Webb, and the sheriff of Durango went and brought them back, as Lizzie was 16 and George was 32. Lizzie B. took care of George's children as seen in the 1900 census of Telluride, San Miguel Co, CO." "George and Lizzie were divorced before 1920, as he married Elizabeth F. Allison on 26 Sep. 1907 in Golden, CO. Shows them in the 1910 census living in Spokane, WA. She died there (no proof of when)."
	Wright, George cont2								"George then roomed with a Gertrude Eagan whom he married on 29 Mar 1921 in Arapahoe Co, CO. I don't know what happened to her, as George died in 1931 on 7 Nov." "My grandmother, his oldest daughter, was placed in an orphanage in Denver where she stayed until she was 17. When she got married, her sister Emma came to live with her. Elmer lived in Alamosa, CO, and had an arm cut off in a railroad mishap, but was married. Emma married Theophil A. Peterson and later divorced. Walter never married, but was in the Army." "George ran a traveling shooting gallery and took the kids with him, so it must have been not long after he and Lizzie B. divorced. He realized that was no life for children, so he farmed the boys out with people he knew, sent Emma to live with an aunt in Texas, and put May in the orphanage."
