31 Aug 1906	Addison, Edith Whitaker	2 mos	W	F	12	10	78	Edith has a Cenotaph in Green Mountain Cemetery, Boulder, Colorado. See Memorial #139934349 at www.findagrave.com. Per a Find A Grave contributor, Amys, Dec 2014, Edith's middle name is Whitaker, her father is Herbert Addison who died 1949 and her mother is Alfreda W Addison who died 1967. Edith W Addison, female, d. 30 Aug 1906 in Denver Co., Colo (3).	Martin, H.D.	1,3,6,10	21-Jun-1906	30 Aug 1906	Alfreda Whitaker	Herbert Addison

	Addison, Edith Whitaker cont 1								Per Amy, 18 Dec 2014 -- I used the cemetery burial index as well as census records and city directories on ancestry.com. Little Edith's parents are Alfreda Whitaker Addison and Herbert Addison. Herbert was a mining engineer, and they were living in Denver at the time of poor little Edith's death. Alfreda, Edith's mom, was the daughter of Alfred E. Whitaker (a librarian) and Laura Gunning Whitaker.
	Addison, Edith Whitaker cont 2								Alfreda had a twin brother, Alfred Horace Whitaker, as well as a sister Grace Whitaker Wagner. All of these relatives of Edith - her mom, dad, maternal grandmother and grandfather, aunt and uncle, are all buried together in Green Mountain Cemetery, Boulder, CO. They are all inscribed on 3 different faces of the obelisk monument in the midst of them, and they are all in the cemetery records here. Edith is on the same face as her parents, but she's not in the cemetery records. We now know that is because she was actually buried in Riverside.

Anglemyer, Charles cont 1								Per Ginny Suetzle, great granddaughter of Charles, 15 Feb 2014. Anglemyer, Charles A. - Charles was born near Toledo, Ohio in December of 1845. His parents were William and Joanna Hilborn Anglemyer. The Anglemyer's came to America in 1752 and settled in Pennsylvania. Charles' grandfather, John (1780-1824), and his father, William (1807-abt 1886) were born there. The family was in Columbiana County, Ohio when John died in 1824 and William at, 17 years of age, became the 'man of the house'. They returned to Pennsylvania where William married Joanna Hilborn in Bucks County on December 30, 1828. Joanna was born in the Ontario area of Canada and had family there. She and William apparently lived in Canada at times as their oldest daughter, Mary, was born in Canada in 1831. After her birth they must have returned to Ohio as their oldest son, James, was born there in 1832. Then back to Canada where a son, William, was born in 1836 and a daughter, Joanna, born in 1839. At the time of the 1840 census they were
Anglemyer, Charles cont 2								back in Green, Columbiana County, Ohio; and then moved to Henry County, Ohio, where Charles was born in 1845. From the "Fayette County History" (Iowa) published in 1878: ANGLEMYER, WILLIAM, farmer, S. 29; P.O. Brush Creek; born in Bucks Co., Penn., April 5, 1807, where he married Joanna Hilborn Dec. 30, 1828; they emigrated and settled on their present farm in March, 1860, consisting of 290 acres, worth $8,000. Republican; members of Christian Church. Mary A., James, William H., Joanna and Charles are the names of their children. Mr. A. purchased his land in this county in 1857, but did not settle on his farm till 1860. In 1860 they had moved on to Brush Creek, Fairfield, Iowa. The two oldest, Mary Ann and James were no longer with the family. Both had married and, for now, remained in Henry County Ohio. Charles Anglemyer and Permella Massee were married on December 24, 1874 in Fayette County, Iowa. Their first child, Irene, was born in Iowa in 1876. From this time on, the Massee and Anglemyer families traveled together. By 1880 they were	 Post 1879 Irene Anglemyer 1459 LARIMER ST. DENVER, COLO.

	Anglemyer, Charles cont 5						family moved to Denver. I wonder if his sister's commitment to the Insane Asylum could have influenced that decision. I first find them in the Denver City Directory in 1892. They are not listed in 1889. There is no Directory available for 1890 and 1891. They were in Denver in August of 1891 as their oldest daughter, Irene, died of Diphtheria at that time and is buried at Fairmount Cemetery. All records of Charles while he lived in Denver indicate he worked as a Teamster, as did his son, Martin. Permella dies in January of 1914 and Charles marries Millie Mathers in September of the next year. The 1922 directory implies that Mille and Charles were no longer together. In 1923 Charles and daughter Della Grace were living together at 1303 Osage. Millie died in January, 1926. There was a lot of turmoil in their lives at this time and I expect this may have been when they were forced to move to the Poor Farm. Charles would have been about 80 years old. As those were the days before social security, he most likely lived past the time he had reserves for and was too
	Anglemyer, Charles cont 7						old to find gainful employment. Life expectancy at that time was much younger and most of the population had spent their lives farming. As a farmer you were lucky to get a crop every year in order to feed your family, and be able to barter or sell enough for the extras your family needed. Not much chance to save for an old age well into your 80's. Charles died at 90 years old in July of 1936 --a year after social security was enacted, but not implemented until 1940. His daughter, Della had died in December, 1931 at the age of 48. 11 Mar 1920	Bard, Irving	71 yrs	W	M	12	18	114	Per David Stearns 28 Apr 2011 -- "Irving Bard is the son of Dr. Richard Bard and Mary Scheury of Boulder, Colorado." "He worked as a waiter and dishwasher in Denver." "According to the Bard family Bible, 'Irvin Bard was born Dec 9th A.D. 1848 Sunday'. There is no other mention of him in the Collie family collection of Bard memorabilia at the U.C. Boulder Library. In 1870, Erwin is listed as head of household and living with his parents and sister Mary. He is working as a laborer. In 1880 he is a boarder living in Boulder and working as a waiter. He cannot be found in 1900. In 1910 he is living on Market street in Denver and working as a dishwasher in a restaurant. In 1920 he is living alone at 1446 12th Street in Denver. He has no occupation. He is listed as a widower. Attempts to find out who he might have married have been negative. He died within a month or two of the 1920 census." 08 May 1918	Beavans, Walter cont 1							29Apr1918, Rocky Mountain News, p2, News Article -- ["Suicide Lies Near City Jail For 12 Hours"]~ "All was quiet along Cherry creek Saturday night, when suddenly what sounded like a pistol shot was heard, just back of the police station." "Somnolent house men, wearied by the monotony of an eventless evening, stated out of their repose." "Must have been a gun." A patrolman said." "Nothing but an auto tire blown up, as usual," suggest another." A cry rose from the outer darkness, but the officers who were listening with intent ears after the explosion, concluded it was merely the screaming of the wind. They fell back into quietude." "When dawn broke, a "trusty" started to perform his assigned tasks about the jail, when he almost toppled over an obstruction lying back of the jail in the parkway which adjoins Speer boulevard. He leaned over and discovered it was the body of a man." "Say, if you're that drunk, you'd better get out of this before the cops find you." Said the trusty, leaning over and shaking the prostrate figure." "But there was no response."
08 May 1918	Beavans, Walter cont 2							"The trusty stretched out a cautious hand and touched the features. The face was cold." "With a scream, the trusty ran to jailer McNally and begged to be locked 'in solitary." McNally complied and asked the reason. It was then the trusty announced his findings of the dead man." Coroner Horan took charge of the body and established identification by means of a memorandum book found in the man's coat pocket. It gave the man's name as Walter Beavans and Louisville Ky., as his home." "In the rigor of death, one clenched hand still grasped a revolver containing four loaded shells. There was also one empty shell." "The police concluded the report heard twelve hours before was a suicidal shot." (13). 15 Oct 1918, Rocky Mountain News, p9, Deaths - "BEAVANS -- April 28, 1918, Walter Beavans. Remains at the W.P. Horan & Son funeral chapel. Funeral notice later." (13).

Per Diane Durian Lindall, 28 June 2011 -- "Newton BRAWNER was born 5 Aug 1873 in Washington, Iowa to Alexander Brawner and Sarah Turnipseed Brawner. His parents divorced when he was 6 yrs old, and he lived with his mother and her family. His mother died when he was 14 yrs old and according to his father's account, he spent his entire life as a drifter, but staying in Colorado. He was illiterate, as was his father, thus probably the reason for the different spelling of his name. According to several census listings he always used the last name BROWNER. Newton was my first cousin, 2 times removed, so I have very little other information on him." Updated info from Diane Lindall 18Nov2013. Alexander b. in Ohio & d. in Iowa. 14 May 1908	Campbell, Charles Ian	7 mos	W	M	12	13	466	E-mail from Carolyn Lynch 10 Jun 2014 -- Yes, Charles I(lan) Campbell is part of my family. He was the older brother of my grandfather, James Alexander Campbell. Their mother, Jessie Auld came from Scotland in 1905 to work at The Polo Ranch in Sheridan, Wyoming, which is where she met her husband, Loyal Pearl Campbell who worked at a neighboring ranch. Loyal and Jessie married in late 1905, had their first child, a daughter, Helen Emeline, who died at the age of 15 months on 30 Dec 1907, while they were still in Wyoming. Charles Ian was born in October 1907, and as you know, he died in May 1908. That had to be heart wrenching to lose two babies within 5 months time.	Miller, C.M.	1,3,6,10	11 Oct 1907 Sheridan Co., Wyoming	13 May 1908 Denver, Denver Co., Colorado	Jessie Wright Auld	Loyal Pearl Campbell
14 May 1908	Campbell, Charles Ian cont 1							They apprently moved from Wyoming to Denver sometime after the death of Helen, but before the death of Charles. He died of pneumonia, so maybe they were trying to head south from Wyoming in search of warmer weather? My mother has mentioned a 3rd baby who died in infancy before my grandfather was born in 1910.
14 May 1908	Campbell, Charles Ian cont 2							I don't have any certain information on that. But, if you find another Campbell "infant" grave in the same cemetery where Charles is buried, it could be that 3rd baby. I do know the family remained in Denver till sometime between 1912 and 1917 when they moved to Twin Falls and then to California. Campbell, male, b. 11 Apr 1924	Connell, Levi William cont 1							Levi William Connell married Grace Till Smith JAYNE on October 25, 1899 in Dent County, Missouri. They appear on the 1900 U.S. Census for Dent County where Levi is listed as a farmer. Levi and Grace became the parents of Ivy Louise and Esther Lena. Then the family moved to Denver, Colorado, where Myrtle was born. When Levi drank spirits, he was not kind to his family. Grace took the girls and answered an ad for a cook and housekeeper on a dairy farm in the mountains near Telluride, Colorado. The couple divorced. Grace married the owner of the dairy farm, John Henry Daniels. One day, Levi showed up saying he wanted to see his girls. John went out and spoke to him. Grace went to the woodpile to get some wood, because she wanted Levi to see that she was expecting another child.

11 Apr 1924	Connell, Levi William cont 2							The family never heard of Levi again, except for his name appearing on a tax record and on the 1920 U.S. Census. Finally, in December of 2013, a death certificate was obtained and his fate was revealed. Information provided by Janet, great granddaughter of Levi W. Connell, December 2013. "Margarita de Larosa, a Mexican about 65 years old, who has been employed as a section hand by the Colorado & Southern railroad at Wisehorn station, near Boulder was found dead yesterday morning in the backyard of the People's Tabernacle, Twentieth and Lawrence street. He had been shot in both left and right lungs and police believe he was murdered. His pockets had been turned inside out and apparently rifled. Nothing was found on the body, which was identified by Refugio de la Cruz of 3705 Walnut street, Denver, nephew of the man, who gave the police an account of his uncle's movements Saturday evening up to 10 o'clock." "At that hour he left a poolroom at 2204 Larimer street, announcing his intention of making a few purchases at drug stores and taking the 11:30 train back to Wisehorn. He had about $40 in his possession at that time. At
18 Oct 1918	de la Rosa, Margarito 2	cont							10:15, several people living in the vicinity of Twentieth and Lawrence streets heard two or three shots and reported them to the police. The supposition is that De Larosa was murdered at that time and the appearance of the body when discovered yesterday morning would strengthen that belief.' "It is the theory of detectives who have been working on the case that some one who knew De Larosa had money with him endeavored to hold him up and shot him when he refused to turn over his pocketbook, afterwards placing the body in the church yard. Powder on the coat of the dead man indicated that the shooting had been done at close quarters.' "De Larosa was well dressed and is said to have been in comfortable circumstances and to have had considerable money in a Boulder bank.' (13).

01 May 1935	Drysdale, Charles	68 yrs	W	M	12	35	37	Undertaker: Mortuary Bureau (6). Per Dale Drysdale on 03 July 2011 -- Charles Drysdale was the first child of Katurah E. Spencer and James Francis Drysdale. Born 1866 in Bloomington, Indiana, he was followed by brother Joseph (1868), sister Effie Mabel (1869), and brothers Alfred (1876) and Thomas (1880). We know little about his early life. He was a card-carrying member of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, and apparently moved where there was work: 1900, a stove moulder in Kansas City, Missouri; 1901 in Pueblo, Colorado; back in Missouri by 1904 as a laborer for the Kansas City Bolt & Nut Company. Around 1906, Charles moved to Ely, Nevada with several family members, where he worked as a cabinet maker. He later moved to Denver, where by 1920 he lived at 4050 Walnut with owner Rudolph Prezeau and family, plus 12 other boarders. By 1930, at age 64, Charles lived in Rose Hill (Denver area) working as a poultry farmer.	none	1,6,13	Sep 1866	30 Mar 1935	Katurah E. Spencer	James Francis Drysdale
01 May 1935	Drysdale, Charles cont'							In 1933, Charles applied for a pension in Arapahoe Co. On 30 Mar 1935, he succumbed to an overwhelming bacterial infection and died in the Denver General Hospital, having been ill for several days. Prior to his death, Charles had been living at 2349 Fairview, Denver, working as a carpenter. There is no record that he ever married. 	Dunkin, Robert E. Cont 1							Per Mark Dunkin, 12 Aug 2014. Robert's grandfather is my 3rd greatgrandfather Joseph Dunkin. Joseph and 3 generations before him were land speculators- farmers. They started in Leesburg Virginia, then to western Pennsylvania, southern Ohio and then western Indiana. They would purchase large parcels of land develop it make it farmable, stay a few years then sell and move on and do it again. In 1860 Joseph was worth $22,000. By calculating the amount of land he owned in today's numbers I estimate him to be worth between 7 and 8 million. After Joseph died in 1864 Sarah (Josephs second wife) and her 3 children came here to Iowa to join Joseph's sons by his first wife (Thomas and Hercules). Robert's father was Huff Dunkin. Huff still owned 200 plus acres of land in Indiana in 1870. He ran a livery business as well as a livestock feed business in Albia, Iowa. This was Robert's connection to the horse business. Robert was the oldest of 3 brothers. Robert's mother was Minnie Saunders, the daughter of Robert E Saunders.
	Dunkin, Robert E. Cont 2							Robert E was a successful farmer in the area and continued to own land in Indiana as well after he moved here to the Albia area. Minnie and Huff seemed to have a good relationship up until 1885 when Robert's youngest brother was born. I can't find record of it but they were probably divorced around then. Huff was a horse and livestock trader in Albia and then in St. Joseph, Missouri. He then moved on to St. Louis and continued in the livestock business until the late 1890's when he was killed in a gunfight. Between 1885 and 1902 when she died of cancer, Minnie owned and operated several restaurants in Albia. Robert and one of his brothers bought one of the cafes from her. Robert and his brothers owned several race horses as well as harness horses. Robert also worked for the local newspaper and attended the worlds fair in St. Louis for the paper. Stories would indicate that he was a top horseman.

"Born Tuesday April 11, 1911 - Stillborn. She was the first born to Lewis Farmer and Iva Johnson Farmer. She is buried in Riverside Cemetery Sec. 50 Lot 14 Block 12. Lewis (20) and Iva (16) were married in Wyoming in 1909, moving to Colorado shortly after to be close to Iva's older sister Cora Johnson Hamm. After little Milred's death Lewis and Iva moved to Oregon. Iva had more family there for support. Lewis worked as a car inspector for the railroad, until he was injured and was put on disability. Iva was a homemaker, great cook and flower gardener. Lewis and Iva had two more children, Edna I in 1913 and Delmont E. in 1917. Lewis drowned in 1938 at the age of 51. Iva lived in Oregon the remainder of her life and died at age 88." Picture is of Milred' parents and sister Edna. 11 Dec 1935	Ferguson, Archibald Elkanah "Arch E"	65 yrs		W		M	12		35		87	Per e-mail from Melinda G. on 21 Jul 2013 - Arch E. was b. 1871 in Meigs County, Tennessee to James Elijah Ferguson and Mary Malinda Rowden. Arch E.'s wife's name is Shulah. Information on his parents can be found on Findagrave.com. Additional info from Melinda Avant 26 Sep 2013: "He, like his sister Laura C. Ferguson, were all born in Tennessee along with another brother, John W Ferguson. Their father, James Elijah Ferguson, was a steamboat man after returning from the Civil War (Union Forces). Their mother was Mary Malinda Rowden (Ferguson), also of Tennessee. Arche worked as a plumber in Knoxville and later a steamfitter for the railroad after moving to Denver in the early 1900s. He married Sulle (Suda) (Shulah) Waymire (born abt 1882?) in 1895, Knoxville, Tennessee. They had one son, Archie R. Ferguson born abot 1898 in Tennessee. I have not found death or burial	Hofmann	1,6,13	1871	08 Dec 1935	Mary Malinda Rowden	James Elijah Ferguson
	Ferguson, Archibald Elkanah "Arche E" cont 1											information on Arche's wife Sulle (Suda). Believe she died in Denver sometime after 1928 (last city directory showing her with Arche). I found a Shulah Ferguson buried in Pueblo, Colorado but her age at death in 1931 was 41 years....not a match to my Shulah. In 1927 Arche was an "engineer" for the Colburn Hotel, Denver. He & Sula resided on West 2nd Ave. I have to assume, when Arche died there just wasn't the money for a "proper" burial and marker. May He Rest In Peace."

	Ferguson, Archibald Elkanah "Arche E" cont 2							09 Dec 1935, p1, Rocky Mountain News, News Article – "POLICE INVESTIGATING MYSTERIOUS DEATH – Police Sunday were investigating the mysterious death of a Denver man, found lying nearly unconscious Friday night on S. Downing st., suffering severe cuts and bruises." "The man, identified as A.E. Ferguson, 66, of 2231 S. Broadway, died Sunday in Denver General Hospital, and, altho (sic) he recovered consciousness before his death, he could not explain his injuries, police said." "The nature of the injuries led police to believe that Ferguson was the victim of a hit-and-run driver." "According to Police Surgeon Harry Culver, who took Ferguson to the hospital, the man might have fallen several times. Ferguson was under the influence of alcohol, Dr. Culver said."
	Ferguson, Archibald Elkanah "Arche E" cont 3							"According to Deputy Coroner Gus Economy, Ferguson's death was the result of acute alcoholism." "Police Sergt. D.E. McLean, attempting to locate relatives to notify them of Ferguson's death, found a hunting dog suffering from hunger and thirst at Ferguson's home. The dog was taken to the home of Ferguson's son, Alan, at 3000 S. Pennsylvania st." (13).

Johnson, about 35, slain by police and detectives at a rooming house at 2053 Market St. L.W. Johnson, earlier had slashed a detective with a pocket knife and disarmed him at West 32nd Avenue and Vallejo Street when the detective attempted to arrest him for questions concerning several North Denver burglaries. L.W. Johnson is also suspected of slaying an officer in Kansas City, Missouri. Q. Brown, alias L. Johnson, is from Kansas City, Missouri. A follow up story on the officers involved in the shooting can be found in the 10 Sep 1936 Denver Post issue. (12).	Hofmann	1,6,11,12		28 Aug 1936
05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. Cont 1							29 Aug 1936 Rocky Mountain News, p. 1, News Article: "Negro Is Slain By Policemen In Downtown Chase, Battle" -- "William L. Bennetts Is Seriously Wounded by Barricaded Man" -- "20 Shots Are Fired" -- "L.L. Peterson Stabbed, Beaten, Disarmed, Starts Manhunt" -- "L. Johnson, 40-year-old Negro desperado, was slain by a charge from a sawed-off-shotgun Friday afternoon in a gun battle with Denver police during which he wounded City Detective William H. Bennetts and was driven by tear gas from his barricaded room at 2053 Market st." Bennetts was taken to Denver General Hospital with bullet wounds in the fleshy part of the left shoulder and right forearm." "More than 20 shots were exchanged in the battle before Johnson came out cursing and shooting from his gas-filled room, wounded Bennetts, and was himself killed instantly by the shotgun charge fired into his heart at point-blank range by Patrolman E.W. McCulley."		13
05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. cont 2							"Three police pistol bullets also struck his body before he fell." "Johnson was traced to the room after he had knifed, beaten, and disarmed Detective L.L. Peterson when the latter attempted to question him near W. 32nd ave. and Vallejo st. a few hours earlier." "Takes Officer's Gun" "It was Peterson's gun a .32-caliber revolver, which he used during the siege of his room." "Peterson had obtained a report of a burglary at the home of L.E. Croft, 3925 Clay st., where $100 worth of jewelry had been taken when he saw the Negro on Clay st. between W. 32nd ave. and W. 33rd aves., and became suspicious when the Negro entered store after store and came out without having made a purchase." "He followed him in his automobile, finally calling to him to stop." "Johnson, the detective said, pulled a pocket knife with a five-inch blade from the waistband of his trousers and slashed him across the hand as Peterson attempted to search him."		13

05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. cont 3							"Hits Policeman, Flees" "He then struck the officer in the eye and mouth and fled, after wresting from him the pistol which he was attempting to draw from its holster." "The Negro ran down an alley to W. 29th ave. and Vallejo st., with Peterson in pursuit. The fugitive turned and pointed the gun twice at Peterson but did not fire. At the corner of W. 29th ave, Peterson asked two boys to call police. He was bleeding from the mouth and hand." Johnson ran thru alleys and cut thru one North Denver house as Peterson attempted to follow him by automobile. The Negro finally disappeared near 15th and Platte sts." "Remembering the man had told him he lived in the vicinity of 20th & Market sts., Peterson went to headquarters. Bennetts, Patrolman Howard Fayram, Detective Martin Madigan and Charles J. Burns, acting detective captain, were sent to the vicinity while Peterson was treated for his injuries." "Gunfire Greet's Knock" "The officers learned a man answering Johnson's description had gone into the rooming house at 2053 Market st." "A knock on the door he had entered on the second floor brought a burst of gunfire and curses."		13
05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. cont 4							"Come and get me; I ain't comin' out," Johnson shouted." "In a few minutes, every police radio car in the downtown district had been ordered to the scene." "A few seconds later, a North Denver crew notified the police radio dispatcher that they had the fugitive cornered in the 2200 block on 19th st. On their way to that location, Detectives Mark Scott and Theodore Merkle left the men at Johnson's place with gas guns." "A tear gas bomb was thrown thru the transom of Johnson's room by Fayram, but apparently had no effect." "Bennetts went down a side hallway and fired a shot from his revolver thru the back door of the room. There was no response." "Burns missed in an attempt to throw another into the room from the street window, and Madigan and P.R. Newman a special agent from the Union Pacific Railroad, who was attracted to the scene, were unsuccessful in trying to send a bomb thru a skylight from the roof."		13
05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. cont 5							"They gathered again in front of the door, warning Johnson to come out. The officers kicked in the door and tossed another gas bomb in the room. It worked." "Suddenly the Negro wrenched the door open." "I'll kill all of you," he shouted, firing the two bullets which wounded bennetts, and turning to blaze at Madigan." "Bennetts and Johnson went into close quarters, altho the detective had been shot twice. The other officers did not shoot for fear of hitting Bennetts. Madigan and Fayram managed to club the Negro but he continued fighting." "McCulley leaped up. Johnson grasped the muzzle of the shotgun with one hand and was trying to turn it away when McCulley fired." "The Negro threw his empty gun into a room and lunged at Fayram and Madigan in spite of the gaping wound in his side." "Johnson fell dead, almost torn in two by the heavy charge. Pistol bullets also had struck him in one arm, the right side, and the abdomen." "When the excitement subsided, Burns turned to the officers to "count noses" and determine if any of them had been injured. Bennetts, who was still on his feet after the hand-to-hand struggle, said:"		13

05 Sep 1936	Johnson, L. W. . cont 6								"I think he got me a couple of times." "Denver police have no record on the Negro, it was established late Friday night after his fingerprints were taken at the morgue by Patrolman Lee Crum and checked in the Bertillon department." (13). Funeral arrangements later." (11). From news article on same page: A Regrettable Tragedy. "At the very height of interest attending upon election activities Tuesday afternoon the residents of the Five Points district were thrown into a fever of excitement by a rapid succession of pistol shots that culminated in one of the bloodiest tragedies ever committed in Denver. Walter Jones, better known as "Curley" throughout the city, killed two women, wounded another perhaps fatally, wounded two patrolmen, and finally shot himself, at 2443 Tremont place late Tuesday. Jones died instantly." "Shoots Landlady. Jones first shot Mrs. Holmes Wilson, his landlady, in the hall of the house; then his cousin, Lulu Jones, also a roomer at Wilson's, who died at the county hospital later, and Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. Pauline Berry, who apparently was wounded when she attempted to enter the house. She is at the county hospital, and may recover. George Holmes, 22, son of Mrs. Wilson, heard the shooting, found	Douglass	1,6,10,11		07 Nov 1922
27 Nov 1922	Jones, Walter P. Cont							his mother lying dead, and followed by a volley of Jones's bullets, ran screaming into the street. Meanwhile, neighbors had called the police, who quickly arrived armed with rifles and tear-gas bombs, and laid siege to the place. For nearly half an hour, Jones held about seventy-five officers at bay with a steady fire of shots through the front door. Gradually, by hiding behind autos and trees, the small army of policemen closed in on the house, and were preparing to bomb Jones with tear gas, when, realizing himself trapped, he turned the gun on himself. One of the bullets glanced the head of Patrolman Rudolph Herman, resulting in a slight scalp wound; another went through the hand of Patrolman Cyrus Mann. When Chief Williams, Capt. Hanebuth and Patrolman E.A. Garnett finally forced an entrance they found Mrs. Wilson and Jones dead, and the Jones girl dying. She and Mrs. Berry were taken to the county hospital, where she died in few hours, and Mrs. Berry has less than a fighting chance to recover." (11).

"Arthur Kauffman, 30, of Idaho Springs, died a few minutes after arrival at the hospital." "A third man was reported to have received less serious injuries." "The three men were in an old touring car on the Chicago Creek highway a short distance from Idaho Springs, according to Clear Creek county authorities. Apparently there was no collision. The accident occurred on a straight, wide stretch of road." "The driver lost control of the machine, which overturned three times. One of the occupants was pinned beneath the wrecked machine and the others were thrown clear." "Kaufman and Bigbee were employed by the Kenney Construction Co, which is building a bridge near Idaho Springs." (13).		13

09 Mar 1907	Koehler, Lydia	1 2/3 yrs	W	F	12	10	189	Per Dave Koehler 26 Jan 2020 - Lydia was born July 9, 1905 and died May 7, 1907 of pneumonia. She was the daughter of Johann George "George" Koehler and Katharina "Katie" Marie (Bott). Her parents were Volga Germans that immigrated to America through the Port of Galveston in 1903, coming from Beideck, Saratov, Russia. They lived in Globeville from 1903 thru 1907. They were members of the St Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church on 4438 Sherman, and their nearby home at the time of Lydia's passing was on Lincoln St, which is now part of the I-70 corridor. In the year following Lydia's death, her parents moved to Brush Colorado where they settled into farming and raised a family.	Miller & Moewes	1,3,6,10	9 Jul 1905	07 Mar 1907	Katherina Marie Bott	Johann George Koehler
	Koehler, Lydia cont							Lydia was the second child born to George and Katie, she was preceded in death by a sister Marie, who died at age 11-months at sea on the ocean voyage from Russia. Lydia's parents died of natural causes at Brush, CO in the 1930's; they had 9 children, and only 4 survived to adulthood. Lydia was a sister to my father, Manuel Koehler (1918-2002).

"A passerby who saw smoke coming from the closed car called the fire department. An attempt to save Lockett's life was made by rescue squad No. 4, in charge of Capt. William Lindsay. Officials said Lockett had sought shelter in the car and had accidentally ignited litter on the floor of the car before falling asleep." (13)	Granberry	1.6,11,13		Nov 1940
15 Nov 1940	Lockett, Edward W. cont - 1							15 Nov 1940 Colorado Statesman, News Article: "[Winos' Drink Toast To 'Slim' Lockett, Dead Pal] By Ted Wood -- The "wino's" down on Larimer St. tipped their bottles and drank a last toast to Edward "Slim" Lockett, who followed the wino trail into the jaws of death last week. The 45-year-old father of a youthful son, died in Denver General hospital of burns -- burns-suffered as a result of spending his "bed money" for "one more bottle." Broke and homeless, "Slim", whom associates said was a "relief wino", crept into an empty freight car at 21st and Market streets. Sometime later passersby turned in an alarm and firemen, after breaking in a door, found Lockett unconscious on a blazing pile of straw and paper. Captain William Lindsay in charge of Rescue Squad No. 4, theorized that the victim had either built a fire in the car or dropped a burning cigaret (sic) on a pile of
15 Nov 1940	Lockett, Edward W. cont - 2							inflammable rubbish. Huddled around a small stove in a Larimer St. habitue, friends of the dead man were unanimous in their declaration that "Slim" was a "regular guy." But everyone is a regular guy who will "pot up" on every bottle. LARIMER ST. A PROBLEM The "wino" problem on Larimer St. and in the immediate vicinity, is nothing new to the police department. Although "Slim" was known as a "good guy," other members of the wino circle have often been encircled by the long arm of the law. For "Winos" must have their wine when they feel the urge to imbibe, and to get it they have been known to resort to petit (sic) larceny, car prowling and even "strong arming" men who looked like "ready money." Workers returning from the recent beet harvest have been victims of those who would take a chance on imprisonment for a bottle of wine.

15 Nov 1940	Lockett, Edward W. cont - 3								But "Slim" Lockett, according to his associates, was different. He was always able to "dance to every set" but none could accuse him of ever breaking the law. So the "winos" told reporters that it was "a shame" that "Slim" had to go that way. They hoped that his body, which had been unclaimed as we go to press, would be claimed by relatives. Thus ends the story of another "wino" who attempted to follow the trail that always leads to tragedy. A small group of friends huddled closer to a slow burning stove, watching closely the progress of a "mulligan" and lamenting the death of a "regular guy". Cars skidded around the corner where "Slim" Lockett was a familiar figure, and huge flakes of snow tip-toed softly to the white blanket that already covered the streets -- and the body of Edward "Slim" Lockett lay unclaimed even by the son he leaves behind -- another victim of the "wino trail"."
