

Baby Gysland was born in July 1934. The family member recalls being told that he was stillborn boy. His parents were Clifford S. Gysland and Marian E. Smith, living in Denver in 1934. He was their first child. The burial card only states "Baby Gysland, male, white, stillborn, Interment date of 7/17/1934 – Undertaker was listed as Moore", according to the cemetery office. The burial records don't list a name, but the family member told me they believe he was named Kenneth Courtney Gysland.
